21st December 2018

Dear Parents,

HAVE A VERY HAPPY CHRISTMAS

This week has been extremely busy and great fun. The children all did wonderfully in our two superb productions. Please do look at the pictures on the website. Christmas dinner was a lovely occasion – so nice to eat alongside the children and so many volunteers who support our school – and the children were so excited to meet Santa and receive his presents. (Thank you to the School Association for helping him with this.) Finally, today we have our carol service in church and the chance to hear solos and small group performances from the children who learn instruments. It's been a very busy term and we all deserve a holiday now.

LOST PROPERTY

A rather lovely dark grey blanket was left at the Panto Pandemonium performance on Wednesday night. Please see the office if it is yours.

If you are interested, contact Mrs Clare James at registrar@cccs.org.uk. We have an ex-pupil who is now a chorister at the cathedral, and this is how he started!
