Dear Parents,

ODD SOCKS DAY

It's Odd Socks Day on Monday! This is the launch day for national Anti-Bullying Week and a chance to reflect on the fact that the world is a much better place because we are all different. Your child is welcome to wear odd socks to school, as sensible or as silly as they like.

COVID-19

Thank you very much to everyone for your clear communication and willingness to follow the rules if your child has a suspected or confirmed case of Covid-19. At time of writing, we have ten children and one member of staff self-isolating with a confirmed case. We have introduced temporary measures including separating pairs of classes at play time, asking staff to wear masks in shared areas and cancelling face-to-face assemblies. We will return to normality one week after we drop below the threshold of five cases in one class, so possibly as soon as Monday 22nd. I have taken advice from the Department of Education and the local Health Protection Agency, and I will keep you informed of how things progress.
