

How Can I Show Someone I Am Sorry?

We all make mistakes and do things that aren't always right. It can be hard to say sorry and apologise for what we have or haven't done.

Can you think of some ideas to show that you are sorry?

Here are some examples to get you started:

I could write a letter to say how I feel.

I could say sorry.

I could do something nice for the person I have upset.

What else could you do?

Draw or write your ideas on this page.
