Dear Parents,

WORLD BOOK DAY

World Book Day Thursday 3rd March: children can dress up as a book character and there will be other fun book-related activities. We have a £1 book token for each child which we will give out next week so please watch out for them.

VOYAGERS CLASS TEACHER

Mrs El-Masri's official last day is next Tuesday. There will be supply teachers for the rest of next week before Miss Reynolds comes back after half term; though on the very first day, Mrs El-Masri will be back for the morning and Mrs Fairhurst will teach in the afternoon so Miss Reynolds can find out what she has missed.

OTHER STAFF LEAVING

Sadly, we will be saying goodbye to Mrs Webb next Tuesday and Mrs Mulcahy next Thursday. We will miss them both very much and we wish them all the very best for the future.

CHANGE IN LUNCH ORDERING

Reminder: the change in the lunch ordering system will take place on Monday 28 February. The new menu should be on the website next week so please take a little time over half term to look through the menu with your child. From then on you will not be able to top up your account but can book your child's meals, up to a month in advance, which you then pay for at the time of booking. A letter with information has gone to all families but a copy is attached with this newsletter.

I-ROCK LESSONS

We are pleased to say we have a new permanent band coach who will be taking over from David from after the half term. His name is Barney Brown, an awesome musician who is young and so enthusiastic to give you pupils the best experiences with iRock!

YOUNG VOICES

We have given out ordered t-shirts to the children today, and we will distribute the parent tickets nearer the time.

LATENESS

We have recently noticed a number of children coming in late; children coming in at 8.50 makes it difficult to get started each morning, so please bring your child in by 8.40am. Thank you

REQUEST FOR ARTIFICIAL TURF

Do any parents have cuts of artificial turf they can donate to Buccaneers class please.

Best wishes

Anna Fairhurst
