Dear Parents,

DAY FOR UKRAINE

We have been invited by the RAF to join in with a 'Day for Ukraine' next Friday 11 March. They are combining with local schools and businesses to raise money and collect vital supplies on behalf of the British Red Cross. We will have a non uniform day and ask that the children dress in blue and yellow and bring in a donation from the list below. They cannot accept anything that is not on this list. Please bring items into the classroom, where we will store them until we are notified of a drop off location.

Aid Supplies List:

- Dried food (Long-life items only)
- Water
- First Aid Supplies
- Medicines
- Toiletries & Sanitary Items
- Warm Clothes & Underwear
- Sleeping Bags (No duvets or pillows)
- Children's toys

THANK YOU

We had some tree damage during the storms last week; thank you very much to Gary & Claire Wright, Dickie Weedon & Jo Glenister who came in to help Alex Rae clear the debris.

CHANGE IN LUNCH ORDERING

Thank you for your co-operation with the new lunch ordering system. It all seems to be running smoothly after a few hiccups in the beginning, but may I remind you that you do need to 'check-out' after your meals have been ordered, even if it is a packed lunch.

CULMINGTON MANOR RESIDENTIAL TRIP

May I remind parents that the full amount of this trip needs to be paid by 15th March.

MESSY CHURCH SUNDAY MARCH 6TH 4-5.30

This month you get to make your own tea! Pitta Pizzas and A Fruit Skewer. Also decorate a paper plate. We will provide all ingredients. Worship time including games, songs, story, quiz

Recommended donation is £1.50 per person for those eating. However, if finances are low, donate any amount or nothing. We would rather see you there.

Please can you let me know if you plan to come this and how many of you would like food. It will give us an idea of how much food to cook.

Either email, text or call me 07799968408 Gary

Best wishes
Anna Fairhurst
