Newsletter 244

18 March 2022

Dear Parents,

RED NOSE DAY

WOW! What a morning we had trying to break the world record for the largest game of musical bumps- it was GREAT fun! The two winners were Poppy in year 6 and Amelia H in year 3, so a big well done to them both. We now need to wait to see if we managed to break it.....fingers crossed!

I ROCK CONCERT

The children who participate in the IRock lessons are performing a short concert at 2.15 on Thursday 31 March; Parents of those taking part are welcome to come. This is a change to the message you received from the IRock teacher yesterday.

PARENTS' EVENING

There will be face to face parents' evening meetings on Tue 29 March for all classes. There will also be online meetings if parents would prefer: Mon 28 – Buccaneers, Wed 30 – Hercules & Voyagers, Thur 29 – Hurricanes & Falcons, but you will need your Teams password. The sign up sheets will be on the classroom door next week so please book your slot. For parents who do not come into the playground at either drop off or collection times, please email the office and we will book an appointment for you.

WELLINGTON BOOTS

There are a large number of wellies in the parent shelter, which could cause a trip hazard. If they belong to you, could you please take them home? Wellies still there on Tuesday will be disposed of.

YOUNG VOICES

You can view the music for Young Voices via the link below:

<https://www.youngvoices.co.uk/music-room/> with the password YV2021

Best wishes

Anna Fairhurst
